

Cadillac Footlites Junior Players Arts Camp/Workshop Scholarship Application

Cadillac Footlites Junior Players, a division of Cadillac Footlites, offers scholarship dollars to help defray the cost of arts camps and workshops, such as Interlochen Summer Arts Camp, Blue Lake Summer Arts Camp, Calvin's Knollcrest Music Camp, CTAM workshops/conference, etc. to students who meet the following requirements:

1. Must be age 8-18 years old.
2. Current or former member of Junior Players or someone who has participated in either a Cadillac Footlites or Junior Players play, either on stage or back stage.
3. Proof of acceptance or registration in the arts camp or workshop
4. Completion and submission of this application form 6 weeks prior to date of camp/workshop attendance.
5. Being chosen by the Junior Players scholarship committee from those who apply.

Other scholarship stipulations:

- A brief note of recommendation from a school music teacher or other appropriate adult is recommended and will be considered by the scholarship committee. Include it with the application.
- The student may attend the camp for any artistic discipline, whether instrumental, voice, graphics arts, dance, or theater.
- The student may attend any camp/workshop of any duration.
- If for any reason the scholarship recipient does not attend the camp, the amount given will be returned to the scholarship fund.
- The scholarship committee may choose to divide the amount given between more than one student.
- The scholarship check will be made out and mailed to the Arts Camp when acceptance is verified.
- Recipient's name will be publicized in local news unless a written request to withhold this information is requested and signed by the parent.
